COUNTRY WITH WAR for
A its principal business needs
a man understanding war.

This country with business, commerce and engineering for principal occupation, needs a man that understands those things.

Herbert Hoover is a trained engineer and thorough business man. Every business man who has come in contact with the Department of Commerce, under Hoover, can testify to its efficiency. It touches every business interest in the United States.

In New York yesterday Les-sing Rosenwald, vice-president of Sears, Roebuck and Co., said,
"I went to Argentina to see about establishing branches there.
It was necessary for me to have detailed information as to business conditions, credits, methods of doing business, etc."

"I called at the Department of Commerce in charge of Secretary Hoover, and was amazed at the completeness of information
open to every American business man."

Hoover understands business and this country, and as Mr.
Rosenwald said, "He has earned by actual accomplishment the chance to show what he can do as President."

Yesterday Wall Street decided to take the sursum corda advice and lifted up its heart and its prices.

A Chicago man named Cutten, said to have eclipsed all stock operation records in history, has for his motto, "You must know when to leave the corpse," and he says the time "to leave" has not yet come.

Some of the stocks that seemed to have faded their tents like the Arabs, to silently steal away, came back with a bang. Gentle men that sold Baldwin Locomotive stock and saw it jump back from 238 to 240, point as high as 275, decided to wait until he is a little dead.

A visitor to the White House feeling important, said to President Coolidge, "Mr. Coolidge, I must tell you I did not vote for you."

"Well," replied the President,
"some did."

Today, some know the meaning of the expression, "I did not choose." The "Draft Coolidge" enthusiasts feel like the wedding guests in "The Rivals of the Ancient Mariner" who "sat on a stone, he could not choose but hear."

Will Rogers, born out West, does not understand New England speech, and that costs him $5000.

The Republican platform will accept Senator Borah's proposal,
"rigid dry enforcement," which means exactly nothing. We are supposed to have strict enforcement now. Actually "rigid dry enforcement" means rigid collecting of bribe money.

In Westminster Abbey British-ers were on their knees yesterday praying for acceptance or rejection of the new prayer book.

They might give Omicron's to whom the prayers are addressed, credit for knowing what is in the hearts of those that pray.

But men will attach importance to words.

James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, will visit the plant of the New Haven Wire Company today. When he was 16 years old he worked there 13 hours out of every 24 for $4.65 a week. If you stick to your job, even that kind of a job, you can get some where.

AUTO DIPS 2 IN POND

A youth and girl today narrowly escaped drowning when their auto plunged over a cliff in Middlesex Park and sank under 25 feet of water in Wright's pond, Medford.

They are Frederick Walker, 20, of Forest st., Charlestown, and Dorothy Campbell, 19, of Central sq., East Boston.

Their car was parked, they stated,
when they started the motor.
Still in reverse gear the machine shot backward.

Frederick Frank Brewster of Medford arrived in time to see the car disappear. He plunged in and succeeded in opening the doors.
Clutching the girl, and with Walker clinging to his clothing, he came to the surface. First aid measures were used.

'WET' FIGHT HALTS NOMINATIONS

Kansas City, June 14 (INS)—Immediately upon the reading of the tentative platform in the Republican National convention today, at its fourth session, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University announced he would fight on the floor against adoption of the plank for the enforcement of the 18th amendment, the prohibition law.

"I must be allowed some time," he said.
He was assured he could have it by the permanent chairman, Senator George H. Moses.

Senator James E. Watson of Indiana announced today that he and Curtis of Kansas, Goff and Lowden will remain in the fight "to the finish" for the presidential nomination.

The convention was called to order at 10 a. m. today. Boston time is one hour ahead of Kansas time. The galleries were almost empty. There was some question as to whether a quorum of delegates was present. Please Turn to Page 2, Column 1.

FULLER DRIVE GAINING STRENGTH WITH G. O. P.

Kansas City, June 14.—An organized campaign to make Governor Fuller the Republican candidate for vice-president was begun in the convention today.

It has the support of several Hoover leaders, who believe the nomination should go to the East and that the governor is the strongest Republican possibility. The Massa-

HOOVER TRIUMPH SEEN DESPITE VAST 'HOE ARMY'

This fine picture was taken from behind the speakers' platform, looking out over the delegates in their various sections, during the opening session of the convention. Although it had become apparent before the session opened that Hoover had more than enough votes to give him the nomination, the other candidates did not give up the fight against him and were watching for every chance to gain some advantage. Chances seemed few and it appeared that the struggle over the dry plank and the farm relief plank would be about all the fight they would see, and they had to await the issue of this battle before the platform committee.

BOSTON AMERICAN

BOSTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1928

Just before their repulse by the police. Here is the head of the farmers' protest parade arriving in front of the convention hall in Kansas City. Police ejected them from the hall. This telephoto was rushed by plane to St. Louis and transmitted to Boston over the A. T. & T. Co.'s wires. The farm representatives, known as the "Hoe Army," paraded to the convention hall shouting "we don't want Hoover." Despite their shouts and their parade they failed to impress the delegates in their determination to nominate the Secretary of Commerce. Farmers are still hanging around the convention city to see the sights.

Photo shows a general view outside the convention hall, as the first session of the Republican convention adjourned. The street is filled with delegates passing out of the hall. The opening session over, most of them have nothing to do until tomorrow. Those not occupied with committee meetings had a chance to look over Kansas City. One point of doubt remains to be cleared up—who will be named for second place on the ticket?

Photo shows group of delegates who demand "equality for agriculture" and are seeking a nominee who will give the farmers a fair deal. Farmers who invaded Kansas City stormed the convention and gave the police a lively time when they tried to get into the hall. Though they didn't get in, they furnished moral support to the delegates who demand a farm plank with the equalization fee.

PARKER WON'T BAR POLITICAL AUTO PLATES

Capt. George A. Parker, registrar of motor vehicles, today declined to enter political number plates off automobiles.

The registrar was asked to bar the plates by Governor Fuller's highway safety committee on the grounds they might cause accidents.

"I find no legal authority to do so unless they obstruct the license plate or otherwise interfere with a clear reading of the number by police officials," he wrote the committee in reply.

"I would suggest that auto owners place the plates in any other matter of an advertising nature in such a way that they are not a possible question as to obstruction," he added.

The three were drowned during rescue operations that attended the grounding of the Boston-New York steamship, Robert E. Lee, last March.

"Please accept my most sincere thanks," Mrs. Martha L. Chapman of Winthrop, widow of William H. Chapman wrote.

Charles L. Griswold of Manomet, father of Frank W. Griswold, expressed gratitude and added: "Would be pleased to have you express my thanks through the columns of your paper."

Mrs. Frances Clark of Taunton, mother of Edward Clark, plans to erect a memorial to her hero son with the money received. "I wish it were in my power to thank each of the contributors," she wrote.

NOBILE RADIOS THAT SAFETY IS IN SIGHT

(Copyrighted, 1928, by the Associated Press.)

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 14 (AP)—General Umberto Nobile and the five men of the crew of the Italia, who are stranded with food on North East Land, believe that they are now virtually safe. The general's message added that he had been injured in the crash of his airship when it struck the ice.

In communications sent the base ship Otta Di Milano, Giuseppe Tighi, radio operator for the stranded party, said the group which for almost three weeks felt that safety was in sight. This optimism, which was not shared, was felt at King's Bay to indicate that the party is now so near floes of ice or icebergs that they could get ashore or that with the help of the various rescue expeditions hastening to their aid they felt they would be saved.

FATE OF 10 UNKNOWN.
No news has been received of the fate of the other 10 men of the crew of 16. Three of these 10, including Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, Swedish norvegiar, left the Nobile party on May 29 in an effort to reach North Cape over the ice, but have since dropped from sight. The other seven men were carried off in the hull part of the Italia when the control cabin was torn loose as the dirigible sank the ice.

Ice experts at King's Bay said today that there was a possibility the balloon party might not be reached but by being blown toward King Charles Island, a group south of North East Land in Barents sea. During the three weeks since the Italia set disaster, there have been only a few days of good weather, most of the time being marked by strong winds, a gray sky, snow and fog.

DOGS WILL JOIN HUNT

The icebreaker Bragana, which returned to King's Bay yesterday, will take on fresh provisions, will start north again tonight in an effort to reach North Cape with Capt. Rikner-Larsen and Lieut. Luetow Holm. Norwegian sleds, which will seek the lost expedition from the air. The icebreaker lobby, which had been used as a cane ship by the service, will return in Norway.

Dog teams will be carried aboard the Bragana and it is believed that they will be able to reach the Nobile party within 14 days if the Russian icebreaker Malinin, also aiding in rescue efforts, or Ellersland's men have not previously effected rescue.

Mayor and Sheriffs in Battle at Brule

Superior, Wis., June 14 (AP)—Superior, the so-called "summer capital," today found itself involved in a bitter election dispute, with Mayor Fred Baxter and the police on one side and sheriff's deputies with a court order on the other.

The deputies demanded possession of ballots cast Tuesday on the question of a change in the form of city government. They set up a circuit court order issued after W. J. Stenman had taken an affidavit that the ballots in the sheriff's office were "accessible to the mayor."

Stenman and Mayor Baxter had been opposing leaders at the riot. The sheriff's deputies were met by the mayor, who refused to turn over the ballots. Finally permission was given the deputies to take the ballots, providing two policemen saw that the ballots actually were locked up.

A recount is probable. A check of tally sheets showed a majority of 43 against any change in government, but leaders of the movement for a change claim a majority of 51 votes in favor of their side.

2 FOLK DEATH AS HUB PLANE DROPS IN SEA

A plane that was to be delivered to the Boston Airport Corporation at the Boston Airport today, was wrecked instead into the sea, by rock of a motor that cut out, and the ship's two occupants narrowly escaped drowning.

Piloted by Lt. Emerson Carpenter of the Boston Airport Corporation, and with Frederick Proder, an intern at the Channing Sanatorium, Woburn, as passenger, the ship had taken off in a last flight preliminary to formal delivery.

When 200 feet in the air, off World War Memorial Park (Wood Island) East Boston, the ship's motor quit and the plane dropped. Lt. Carpenter fastened his safety belt and ordered his passenger to do the same. Just before the ship hit the water, both men leaped. Then, when the tail of the plane remained out of the water, they clung to this while awaiting assistance.

Persons in the park notified the airport authorities and a National Guard motorboat was sent out and

$1 INSURANCE POLICY FOR MOVIE STAR

All the way from Hollywood via the fastest form of pictorial communication known to man—the telephone—came an application for the Boston Evening American's $10,000 Accident Insurance Policy from Dolores Del Rio, the ultra lovely girl whose beauty and talent have swept her to stardom in the moving picture world and made her a national favorite wherever moving pictures are shown.

The beautiful Dolores is appearing at Loew's state Theater in the title role of "Rasputin," a motion picture dramatization of Helen Hunt Jackson's famous novel.

While reading the Boston newspaper comments in advance of the appearance of her new picture in this city, Miss Del Rio was attracted by the remarkable offer which the Boston Evening American is making whereby a $10,000 Accident Insurance policy is made available to the public at only $1.00.

Miss Del Rio is insured for many thousands of dollars. Her beauty, ability and international popularity are the basis of the investment of millions of dollars.

"What is the object of this newspaper in doing?" declared Miss Del Rio. "What is the object of this insurance?" she asked. "I can apply for one of these policies?"

"Telephone your application," she was answered. "There is a coupon in the paper you are reading."

Acting with the enthusiasm, warmth, and spontaneity that characterize her electric temperament, Miss Del Rio made arrangements immediately on her telephone approach of the words.

"I hope the readers of the Boston Evening American will take advantage of this generous insurance offer."

Dolores Del Rio. "Think of it! $10,000 insurance for $1 for a whole year! Each policy is underwritten by the North American Accident Insurance Company, the oldest and largest exclusive health and accident insurance company in the United States."

Every person between the ages of 15 and 70 is eligible for one of these policies. There are no conditions. There is no red-tape—no physical examination is required. All you have to do is fill in the coupon that appears in today's paper and send it with a $1 registration fee to the Insurance Department of the Boston Evening American at 21 Winter St. There is nothing more to it.

For a $1 registration fee you get a $10,000 insurance policy. The Boston Evening American bears all additional expenses.

The Boston Evening American has arranged to distribute a million of these policies to the people of New England. This makes the policies available to every citizen at a cost many times less than that which he would have to pay if he were buying a policy alone.

EL JAH RENTED KIDNAP HOUSE, SAYS AGENT

Salem, June 14.—Frank L. Bodger, real estate dealer of Cambridge, Mass., testifying today in the Superior Court trial of Neah B. Jar, charged with kidnaping Frederick W. Kewright, wife of renting a Neah cottage to two men January 14 of this year.

Bodger testified that El Jah and Fredrick Dutton, Kewright's former chauffeur, who has pleaded guilty, as the men to whom he rented the cottage, following their arrest, he testified.

Kewright resumed the stand at the opening of court and under a direct examination identified a receipt for $15, alleged to have been signed by El Jah, and dated January 1, 1928. This receipt was marked "For services rendered" and "paid in full."

Under cross-examination Kewright said he received the receipt this morning from Ethel Rogers, an employee of his Boston office.

It was brought out that the receipt was for something other than wages, and counter for El Jah presented into the jury for inspection. He asked the jurors to note that the receipt was made out on a letter head, part of which was torn off. He also called attention to the mark of a pen under the writing.

COARSE AS SHE TELLS OF BIG THEFT

Becoming hysterical and then collapsing, Mrs. Rae Weichman closed today in Superior court the taking of testimony by defense and prosecution in the trial of George W. Gordon, charged with larceny from the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc.

Mrs. Weichman and her two sisters, Mrs. Eva Hassel Gordon and Miss Zola Hassel, are also defendants.

She was under cross-examination by Asst. Dist. Atty. Doyle when she accused Gordon of the theft of a diamond bracelet from her. The defense announced its case was closed today.

It is virtually certain the jury will set the case tomorrow.

Mrs. Weichman said she was granted Dec. 12 at the Old Colony Trust Co. with $250 and Eva when they took from a box in the deposit vault $45,000, of which $1000 was the property of the witness and the rest belonged to Mrs. Gordon.

The witness said the last night for Detroit with two cable's checks for $15,000 and $15,000. She testified to depositing the $15,000 check in the Dime Savings Bank, Detroit, under the name of Betty Curtis. The other check she said she deposited in her own account in the Central Savings Bank under her own name.

Questioned by her counsel, Henry Fielding, she signed a statement of Betty Curtis on her brother Max Hassel could not attach the account, nor could her brother-in-law, Harry Mendelow.

Faces Acid Trial

Washington, June 14 (AP)—Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Indiana Standard Oil Company, was acquitted today by a jury in the District of Columbia Supreme Court of charges of refusing to answer questions of the Federal oil committee concerning Liberty brand oil profits of the Continental Trading Company.

The wealthy man was charged with a misdemeanor for alleged violation of Section 123 of the criminal code, which provides punishment for a regularly summoned witness to refuse to answer pertinent questions asked by a congressional committee.

Stewart said that February by the committee were not pertinent questions asked after the being out of the courtroom after being out since 1:05 yesterday afternoon.

The witness pronounced his "not guilty" verdict, which he read and he walked over and shook hands with each of the eight men and four women who had cleared him of the charges.

Stewart was later surrounded by his counsel and friends who congratulated him upon the acquittal.

He declined, however, to make any statement, saying that possibly later he might be asked to have something to say at his hotel.

Stewart Acquittal "Outrage," Declares Senator Norris

Washington, June 14 (AP)—The acquittal of Robert W. Stewart was termed an "outrage against justice" by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

When informed of the verdict, he said: "It demonstrates clearly that if you have money enough to hire lawyers, you will be found not guilty, even though you admit you are guilty."

LIBY ACQUITS STEWART IN OIL CASE

Washington, June 14 (AP)—Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Indiana Standard Oil Company, was acquitted today by a jury in the District of Columbia Supreme Court of charges of refusing to answer questions of the Federal oil committee concerning Liberty brand oil profits of the Continental Trading Company.

The wealthy man was charged with a misdemeanor for alleged violation of Section 123 of the criminal code, which provides punishment for a regularly summoned witness to refuse to answer pertinent questions asked by a congressional committee.

Stewart said that February by the committee were not pertinent questions asked after the being out of the courtroom after being out since 1:05 yesterday afternoon.

The witness pronounced his "not guilty" verdict, which he read and he walked over and shook hands with each of the eight men and four women who had cleared him of the charges.

Stewart was later surrounded by his counsel and friends who congratulated him upon the acquittal.

He declined, however, to make any statement, saying that possibly later he might be asked to have something to say at his hotel.

STAF CHARGED DET. FIN. COM. IN SITE DEAL

Charges that a real estate representative of the city collected from both ends for services in obtaining a Charleston site for a White Fund health unit was made today by the Finance Commission in a report on its investigation.

The report, filed with Mayor Nichols, declared that although Warren F. Freeman, official city real estate expert, did no actual work in lining up owners of lots, or their brokers, he was paid $2247.58 by the White Fund.

The man who collected from both ends asserted was Joseph Dillworth, who, with Warren F. Freeman, Jr., introduced the owners of lots at Elm, Sumner and Baker streets.

Dillworth received only $300 from Freeman, Jr., for the work, while being paid $247.58 by brokers for the other side.

Freeman, Jr., was delegated to do the work for the city, the report said, but he was not responsible.

Freeman, Jr., said the report was the representative of the White Fund and that he was only Mr. Freeman's representative, for whose acts he was responsible.

"The commission is of the opinion that Mr. Freeman should pay his representative entirely out of the fee received from the White Fund and should be required to account for and pay to the White Fund the amount of commissions received from the brokers or the owners of the properties purchased."

Intersection Speed Menace to Safety

By Frank A. Goodwin

Highway Safety Editor, Boston Evening American, and Former Registrar of Motor Vehicles for Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Notwithstanding the remarkable reduction in child fatalities, particularly in Boston, there seems to be an unexplainable increase in adult fatalities, especially to occupants of automobiles.

This indicates that motorists are beginning to speed up and there is a decided increase in drunk and reckless operators.

From newspaper reports there seem to be an increase in hit-and-run accidents, and this is probably accounted for by increase in automobile thefts.

However, the real cause of the increase in accidents is the failure of too many operators to observe one of the simplest and most important laws on the statute book and that is the one which says EVERY OPERATOR SHALL SLOW DOWN UPON APPROACHING A BLIND INTERSECTION.

Last year there were 117 fatal accidents at intersections, resulting in the deaths of about 120 persons.

And there were a little more than 600 persons injured in accidents at intersections.

SUCH ARE INEXCUSABLE
Such accidents are absolutely inexcusable because if either operator OBEYED THE LAW or exercised COMMON SENSE there would be no collision.

The Legislature has passed two laws to make intersections safe and both of them have been violated every day by tens of thousands of operators.

The first and most important is the law requiring that every operator upon approaching a blind intersection SHALL SLOW DOWN.

It must be apparent that every operator was to slow down at an intersection to a speed that would make it possible for him to stop instantly in an emergency, twenty per cent of all highway fatalities and injuries would be avoided.

TOO MANY TAKE CHANCES
Everybody is in a hurry and many thousands are taking chances needlessly. Many operators go by an intersection without slowing down many times a day and they get to after a while that they think they can continue to do this without an accident. But with 500,000 cars on the road driven by all kinds of operators, sooner or later any driver who is continually flitting with death, meets another POOL who has been doing the same thing, and then comes the inevitable crash.

The law at one time required drivers to sound their horns and slow down, but that part of the law having to do with the sounding of horns was repealed because too many operators got the idea that all they had to do was to sound their horn and keep going.

Before this law was changed 25 per cent of all accidents took place at intersections.

When the horn-blowing was done away with, the reckless driver had some slight fear that there might be somebody coming, because he no longer could depend upon the horn.

RIGHT-OF-WAY LAW
The second law passed by the Legislature was the right-of-way law. This provides that when two operators are approaching an intersection on two different streets at approximately the same time the operator on the left must stop and allow the man on his right to proceed.

If this law was obeyed there would be no accidents at intersections, but there are so many selfish operators on the road who are only thinking of getting ahead without any regard for the rights of others that the benefits that might come from this law are being nullified.

There is just one way to prevent these still fatal operators who have no regard for the rights of others from violating these laws and that is by intensive enforcement of these laws by the police.

There is no penalty for violation of the right-of-way law, but there is a penalty for failing to slow down at a blind intersection, and that is one law that should be enforced by the police vigorously and relentlessly and without partiality.

There should be NO FIXING in this type of cases.

operator of the Southern Cross in the epic flight from the United States to Australia.

It was largely through the efforts of these two capable men that the flight from Oakland, Cal., to Sydney, succeeded.

The Australian government already has awarded $25,000 to Charles Kingsford-Smith and C. T. P. Ullin, the two Australian pilot of the Southern Cross, which everyone agrees they deserve.

In the belief that the two Americans are also worthy of reward the House passed the national fund for Navigator Lyon and Radio Operator Warner with $5000.

Among the most recent contributions to the fund are checks of $10 each from Gardner H. Fiske, vice chairman of Boston Municipal Board; Rep. William J. Davison of Taunton, and checks for $5 each from Frank Seiberlich, chairman of Boston board of election commissioners, and Francis E. Blattery, chairman of Boston schoolhouse commission.

Endorsements of the plan also came from Rev. George W. Johnson of Norwood and Thomas C. Crowther of Fall River and C. H. Hollidge, chairman department of Massachusetts American Legion aviation committee.

G. O. P. PLATFORM TELLS THE PARTY'S STORY

FRANKS COOLS FEELS FLOWERY TERMS

By KENNETH CLARK
International News Service Correspondent

Kansas City, June 14.—Into a Republican convention smoldering over the farm issue, the resolutions committee today dropped the Hoover-dictated platform which rejects the corn belt's plan for agricultural relief.

By inference the platform upheld President Coolidge's veto of the New-Steuben relief bill, and offered the farmers as a substitute the federal aid to cooperative marketing. Further relief was promised in "adequate tariff protection for agricultural products."

The platform—1500 words—was adopted by the party in 1927 before the country for continuance in power, was adopted by the resolutions committee only after a 40-hour fight waged against the farm plank by the anti-discrimination, anti-Hoover forces.

ITS FOR PROHIBITION
For the first time since prohibition became effective, the platform contained a specific reference to the 18th amendment, pledging the party and its nominees to the "vigorous and vigorous enforcement of this provision."

The farm and prohibition plank were the heart of the platform of nearly fifty years ago. The platform extolled President Coolidge as perhaps no other politician, president, has been so successful in his life.

It promised further tax reduction and lauded the financial accomplishments of administration, particularly economy and debt reduction.

It urged upward tariff revision to meet world competition, the so-called open market, to cut out war.

It promised regular publicity of campaign funds as a means to curb excessive expenditures in elections.

It promised adequate relief for disabled veterans.

It denounced dishonesty in government and declared the fact that certain citizens of both parties have trafficked in national interests for private gain.

It promised to round out the Navy to the 14-15 ratio of the Washington conference.

It urged greater participation by women in politics.

It renewed the recommendation for enactment of anti-lynching legislation.

It criticized the abuse "in some instances" of injunctions in labor disputes.

It opposed joining the League of Nations.

LOUVERIGHTS FARM PLANK
The farm plank, which Senator Borah of Idaho characterized as "the platform of the farmers, no more in the way of relief than the 1924 platform," caused a group of 15 southern and western members of the committee to submit a minority report endorsing the principles of the resolution.

The resolution, drafted by Mr. Hangerlin bill, Earl C. Smith of Illinois, a Louisville native, and the committee.

This is the 1928 model of farm relief offered in the national platform.

"We promise every assistance in the reorganization of the marketing system on sounder and more economical lines and encourage diversification in order, government financial assistance during the period of transition."

The Republican party pledges itself to the enactment of legislation creating a federal farm board, which will be empowered to promote the establishment of a farm market and to coordinate and control stabilization operations to insure its property and success.

It promises to protect the interests of the farmer, to protect his property and success, to protect his property and success, to protect his property and success.

Liquor Plank Declares "Well Enforce Law"

HERE'S what the G. O. P. platform says on the liquor question:

We reaffirm the American constitutional doctrine as announced by George Washington in his "Farewell Address," to wit:

"The Constitution which at any time exists until changed by the explicit and authentic act of the whole people is sacredly obligatory upon it."

We also reaffirm the attitude of the American people toward the Federal Constitution as declared by Abraham Lincoln:

"We are by both duty and inclination bound to stick by that Constitution in all its letter and spirit from beginning to end. I am for the honest enforcement of the Constitution. Our safety, our liberty depends upon preserving the Constitution of the United States, as our forefathers made it, inviolate."

The people, through the method provided by the Constitution, have written the Eighteenth Amendment into the Constitution. The Republican party pledges itself and its nominees to the honest and vigorous enforcement of this provision of the Constitution.

LAFFLETT HAS FARM AND WET

By ROLAND KIRK
International News Staff Correspondent

Kansas City, June 14.—On train leaving Kansas City today is going the word that the Pullman porters of America need a man of vision at their head. Why want

It was based upon the 1924 platform of the late Senator LaFollette, who held the party to head a third party ticket, and was in the entire minority report from the resolutions committee, of which LaFollette is a member. Its rejection was

Contrary to travelers' illusion, the life of a porter is not a bed of roses and fair place. They want a few things—living wages, for instance, and fewer women travelers with barbershop young men and more leisure for barbers, judge activities and little games of chance.

One of their number suggested a slogan of the Republican convention, with a slogan to the platform committee or to Mr. Mellon or anyone who could do something about improving the lot of a Pullman porter.

Don't Fire Landlord's Still! It'll Mean $200 and Jail

John Wilkowsky, 29, of First st., South Boston, in South Boston court today paid a heavy price for being accommodating to his landlord. Wilkowsky was fined $200 and given two months in the house of correction for illegal manufacturing of home.

Mark Tamielich, 31, the landlord, was found guilty of the same offense, and his case was continued to next Monday for disposition.

Sgt. William Metz told Judge Logan that Tamielich was sent to Deer Island two months ago on a liquor charge. During his absence Wilkowsky kept the home fire burning under a still. When Tamielich was released last Saturday, he hurried home and resumed control. The police then stepped in, arrested the two men, seized the still and 500 gallons of mash.

CODE OF HEALTH FOR BOOTHS AT REVERE

By DR. P. H. MULLOWNEY

Director, Health Laboratory. Assurances that all necessary steps will be taken to put booths at Revere Beach in such sanitary condition that the public and especially children, will be fully protected during the season, have been given the department by Dr. Francis J. Latta, chairman of the Revere board of health.

Following a conference with Dr. Latta, it was announced that regulations are being drafted to prohibit the use of glasses, cups, knives, forks and all food utensils unless properly sterilized for each customer.

All places where food or drink is sold or prepared, such as ice cream, candy, french custard, fruit cream and cake, potato chips etc., must be equipped with a complete supply of running hot water.

The new regulations also will prohibit the exposure to dust or other contamination of sandwiches, frankfurters, green corn and all bakery products. The handling of frankfurters during the cooking process must be done with a clean fork and not with the hands, as formerly.

Ascent Bruno of the Revere board of health made a close examination of all booths last night and found that as a result of the campaign being waged by the Health Laboratory, sanitary conditions were much improved.

The more objectionable features, such as the exposure of uncooked candy, the improper cleaning of glasses, handling of ice cream in an unsanitary manner had been corrected. There was also a marked improvement in the sanitary conditions of these booths that were found in an unsanitary condition on the first inspection.

Each credit is due to Dr. Latta and the other officials of the Revere board of health for their persistent efforts to make the pleasure resort a safe place for the enormous crowds of pleasure seekers who come for recreation and enjoyment.

N. E. COUNCIL TO HOLD AVIATION CONFERENCE

In a boom toward "capitalization of New England's air advantages and the stimulation of aviation manufacture in the region," the New England Council will enter their second annual aviation conference at Hotel Statler June 16.

The conference will last two days into which will be crowded every angle of air development that can be carried on in this section of the country.

From the roof of the hotel the members will witness a demonstration of pursuit flying in addition to the day's activities of a modern airport with its passengers and traffic planes. It is also planned to have the big navy dirigible Los Angeles near over the city at the same time.

In preparation for the conference a group of 14 experts have surveyed New England's opportunities in the report that the six states "are strategically situated to develop a big industry in the manufacture of planes, parts and other aviation accessories."

Howard Conoley, president of the Walworth Company, will preside at the first day's luncheon. He will present Maj. Charles H. Wooley, Norman R. Moray and Elmer W. Fairchild.

The dinner at 6:30 will be in charge of President John R. Lawrence of the New England Council. Gen. John F. O'Ryan, president of the Colonial Air Transport, Inc., of New York and Boston among the speakers.

A. Lincoln Filene, chairman of the research committee, will open the second day. In the afternoon the members will attend the dedication of the new Lowell airport.

OLD Gloom himself. Asked because he was somebody's friend, and preyed upon the evening.

The curious thing is he's really ashamed of his lack of pep. And he's tried to get himself in the Use-It-Up pep line. He's taken health foods that take weeks to work—cathartics that wreck the system.

It's just like a bit of delicious chewing gum. You don't swallow it—you chew it!

Its magic laxative principle is released slowly, the way science meant it to be released. It actually becomes part of the digestive fluids—does not disturb digestion. It works with the body—not against it!

It won't torture you with griping pains. It won't poison or weaken the system. It won't enslave you to laxative pills. Get Feen-a-mint at your druggist's. Correct constipation—now!

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

Sonnenberg Battles Hansen at Arena Tonight

LEWIS GOES FOR PRIZE FOR VICTORY

Stasiek and Komar to Finish Action in Semifinals; McLeod vs. Sarpolis

By JACK CONWAY

GUS SONNENBERG and CHARLEY HANSEN will fight for the right to meet Strangler Lewis in a bout for world's heavyweight wrestling championship when they collide in a finish match, but two falls out of three, at the Arena tonight.

Jack Conway

Sonnenberg—rightly called Livornese—has been an inveterate array of victories. That four opponents in a row have gone down to him, it is a record.

These same qualities have carried Sonnenberg past the rank and file of the heavyweight wrestling community until he is now a contender of a title shot with Lewis. Sonnenberg's victory over Lewis in a match which was held at the Arena on June 2, 1927, was a real triumph for him. He had defeated him in a match which was held at the Arena on June 2, 1927, and he had defeated him in a match which was held at the Arena on June 2, 1927.

There is an unusual interest in the match between Sonnenberg and Hansen tonight. The fact that the winner of the match will be the one who will fight Lewis in a match which will be held at the Arena on June 2, 1927, is a real triumph for him.

There will also be an attractive preliminary card. Vaino Kotonen, middleweight champion, will try conclusions with Jack Martin, Wyoming welterweight.

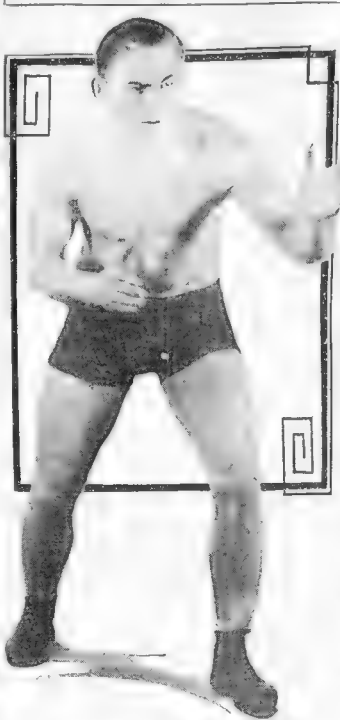

Another Finnish bout will bring together Stanislav Stasiek, Lion of Poland, and Joe Dull Komar. These big fellows are certain to furnish a contest that is replete with thrills.

Neither Komar nor Stasiek are the least bit rough in action. They are smooth and ready to give and are sure to produce plenty of fireworks.

Who Wants a Game? Owing to a cancellation, the Roxbury Town Team is without a game for Sunday, June 17 and Monday, June 18. The team will play an away game on Sunday, June 17, at 2:30 p.m. at the home of the Roxbury team.

REACHING FOR TITLE

Hornsby Still Has Hope for the Braves

DEAR LOU—You may have noticed that the Braves have steadied down. Any time we get a good pitched game these days, we come mighty close to winning it. Give us one or two more real pitchers and they can't keep us away from the race, which seems to be staying tied up and close for our benefit.

There's still a big chance for us to turn in there, especially if the Pirates keep going, and begin to knock some of the off-balance around. The champions certainly had a terrible time this spring. They have class, plenty, but when a couple of the star pitchers went bad, the club fell to pieces. Just another evidence of the value of pitching.

WE had a fearful spring, with our own troubles, but I don't think we had when you stop to think of it. The champions stayed in the lead all season because their pitchers were good. I don't think we had when you stop to think of it. The champions stayed in the lead all season because their pitchers were good.

There is still a couple of days left for training in the big league. I don't think we had when you stop to think of it. The champions stayed in the lead all season because their pitchers were good.

Disputing the fact that the Sharon Country Club is somewhat of a "hot" spot for the tournament, the club officials are confident that the tournament will be a success.

LIMBER-LIMBED GRAPPLER

The wrestling match between Charlie Hansen and Gus Sonnenberg tonight at the Arena promises to be the best of many months in local mat circles. Each is on edge at the thought of a title match with Lewis. Hansen thinks he can pin Gus to the mat. Gus totally disagrees.

These same qualities have carried Sonnenberg past the rank and file of the heavyweight wrestling community until he is now a contender of a title shot with Lewis.

There is an unusual interest in the match between Sonnenberg and Hansen tonight. The fact that the winner of the match will be the one who will fight Lewis in a match which will be held at the Arena on June 2, 1927, is a real triumph for him.

There will also be an attractive preliminary card. Vaino Kotonen, middleweight champion, will try conclusions with Jack Martin, Wyoming welterweight.

Another Finnish bout will bring together Stanislav Stasiek, Lion of Poland, and Joe Dull Komar. These big fellows are certain to furnish a contest that is replete with thrills.

Neither Komar nor Stasiek are the least bit rough in action. They are smooth and ready to give and are sure to produce plenty of fireworks.

Who Wants a Game? Owing to a cancellation, the Roxbury Town Team is without a game for Sunday, June 17 and Monday, June 18. The team will play an away game on Sunday, June 17, at 2:30 p.m. at the home of the Roxbury team.

SITUATED on a rocky eminence, jutting out into the blue waters of the Atlantic, is an old fortress town, once called the "Queen of the Atlantic," and now a fashionable watering place. Indeed, before the war, it was the favorite holiday resort of the rich Americans and also the important resort of Cuba, just across the water.

Martha Lee Tells of Pies and Pastries

MATERIAL for pie crust should always be cold. Then when it will roll easier and crust will be flakier. Paste covered and placed in low heat will keep several days.

An aid to perfect pie crust is to put the dough in water to the flour. Pie shells baked separately, then the crust should be moistened by rubbing.

Fashion Fads

Fishing for Admiration is many a woman's chief sport—whether it be one of those faded Pinks or one of those faded Blues. This accounts for the over-whelming popularity of the fish net stockings, which are worn in colors for daytime wear, but in black or a neutral for evening. Even small and large mesh are decidedly in vogue. Nude, red, gray and beige tones prevail for street wear.

On Land or Sea nautical fashions are being worn by the masses. For town wear as well as for seaside resort costumes. From the tailored frocks, with their sailor collars with plainly notched revers, to the chiton frocks, with their pleated panel attached to a neck
